

SALES AND MARKETING MANAGEMENT

With over 20 years experience in retail marketing and sales, Prestige Property Group can provide a high level of expertise to maximise the return or value of a property.

The Company ensures that marketing material is of a high standard and clearly portrays the vision of the company for the project, together with the benefits of the development to the purchaser.

Prestige Property Group co-ordinates the management of the sales and marketing process that would include the selection of Agents and their appointment as well as administration of the sales and marketing campaign.

